

YEAR-ROUND & ANNUAL PROGRAMS

Please visit the GUESTS section of the site for photos of recent and past visiting artists for KidFilm and the Spring Festival, as well as our other year-round programs.

All programs are open to the public. Members receive additional and free screenings throughout the year.

With help from our Sponsors, we are able to offer all of our annual programs as FREE ADMISSION for the community. We believe that a great city should have access to high-quality arts and cultural programs for all communities with no financial barriers.

We have over 50 years of program archives; We display only a few samples of programs on our site.

The Festival also has working partnerships with hundreds of local and area organizations (cultural, social service, health, film/video, etc.) to present our year-round programs. Contact us for additional information at any time.

The USAFF annual Spring Festival and KidFilm Family Festival programs celebrate equality, diversity, relationships and respect for others, literacy, cultural equity and access to the arts through a number of FREE programs every year.

We're a 50-Day Film Festival!

SPRING FESTIVAL (54 YEARS RUNNING)

SHORT FILMS

For over four decades the USA Film Festival has celebrated and supported filmmakers working in the short format. From first-time filmmakers, to mid-career and master artists, we screen short film works throughout the year during our KidFilm Festival, TexFest program, Spring Festival and our long-running, prestigious Short Film Competition. To date, over $350,000 in cash awards have been distributed and every year over 100 filmmakers receive a free DCP conversion of their work to keep.

Filmmakers who have received recognition early in their careers via the Competition include John Lasseter (Tin Toy), Bob Rogers (Ballet Robotique), Mark Osborne (More), Michael Almereyda (Another Girl, Another Planet), Chel White (Choreography for Copy Machine), Billy Bob Thornton (Some Folks Call It a Sling Blade), Don Hertzfeldt (Lily and Jim), Alexander Payne (The Passion of Martin), Wes Anderson (Bottle Rocket), Todd Haynes (Superstar), Alan Taylor (That Burning Question), Danny Leiner (Time Expired), Jessica Yu (Breathing Lessons), Arthur Dong (Forbidden City, U.S.A.), Marlon Riggs (Tongues Untied), Bill Plympton (One of Those Days), and many others. In 2016 Linda Gray hosted the program with Bruce Davison and Kelly Lynch. Stephen Tobolowsky hosted the shorts program in 2019, and co-hosted with Peri Gilpin in 2015.

DINNER FUNDRAISER

Hopefully, you are!

The title of one of our favorite films from the 1960s inspired our super-fun fundraiser.

USAFF Board member and restaurateur Abraham Salum hosts the periodic private gathering at his eponymous restaurant for 100 lucky guests.

The festive evening can take place at any time of year and includes a fabulous multi-course dinner with wine pairings prepared by a guest chef flown to Dallas especially for the event. Past star chefs and experts have included legendary wine sommelier Charlie Arturaola, food writer Akiko Katayama, Chef Makoto Suzuki, sake expert Tiffany Dawn Soto and Chef Vivian Howard, star of the PBS series "A Chef's Life."

Proceeds from the event benefit the year-round operations of the Festival, a 501c3 nonprofit organization.

To be added to the invitation list, send us an email request at usafilmfest@aol.com and we will send ticket info!

MEMBER SCREENINGS AND PREMIERES

Every month, the Festival hosts premieres and previews of new films, frequently with filmmakers in attendance. See the "MEMBERSHIP" and "HOME" sections of the site for a list of films and filmmaker guests.
